PERSONAL SUMMARY

My name is Tiago Godinho and I recently graduated in Biological Engineering at IST. In addition to the technical training related to industry and management that my course gave me, I still had the opportunity to develop my knowledge in food, pharmaceutical and bioenergy during my internship in LNEG. I consider myself a highly motivated and emotionally intelligent person, versatile, creative and a fast-learner. I am confident that with my skills I can do an outstanding job, and be a valuable asset.
